Did you know

Your eyes are always changing – and can take on added strain if you use digital devices. Since undiagnosed vision problems could affect your ability to learn* or cause strain – everyone should get an annual eye exam, even those who don't need vision correction now.

Plus, eye exams are important to your overall health too. Did you know your eye doctor can spot early signs of health problems like diabetes, heart disease and of course, eye diseases like cataracts and glaucoma? A vision plan can help you stay healthy.
